Package Overview

Embark on a spiritually enriching journey through the holy cities of Varanasi and Ayodhya with this 3-night, 4-day package. This carefully curated itinerary offers a blend of spiritual exploration, cultural heritage, and serene rituals. Varanasi, one of the world's oldest cities, is a spiritual hub on the Ganges River. It's a sacred Hindu site, with significance for Buddhists, Jains, and Sikhs too. The city boasts a rich history, vibrant culture, and stunning ghats and temples. Famous for silk, classical music, and delicious street food, Varanasi hosts colorful festivals like Dev Deepawali and Ganga Mahotsav. A blend of tradition and modernity, Varanasi offers an unforgettable experience. Ayodhya, the birthplace of Lord Rama, is a city steeped in devotion and spirituality. This ancient city, situated on the banks of the Sarayu River, is a pilgrimage site for millions of Hindus. Visit the Ram Janmabhoomi, the site of Rama's birth, and experience the divine energy that permeates the air. The city's numerous temples, ghats, and sacred sites, such as the Hanuman Garhi and the Sita Ki Rasoi, are a testament to the enduring legacy of the Ramayana.
