Package Overview

Shani Shingnapur is a village known for its Shani Temple, dedicated to Lord Shani (the personification of the planet Saturn). The temple is about 70 km from Shirdi, making it a popular addition to a pilgrimage trip after visiting Shirdi. The temple is unique because there is no roof or temple structure housing the deity. Instead, the idol of Lord Shani is kept in an open-air platform, symbolizing his watchful presence. Pilgrims believe that Lord Shani watches over the village, and as a result, there are no doors or locks on houses in the village.
